Session B: July 17th & 18th	$330

There have been big changes in the film industry over the last 5 years and one extremely important skill is creating the very best self-tape audition. Every self-tape audition comes with specific instructions, and LA and SF agents are asking talent to arrange coaching. In this exclusive workshop, Ms. Darlington-Bach gives students the tools and professional insider tips to create their own successful self-tape auditions.

Each Two-Day Intensive On-Camera Workshop includes:

- Rehearsal of Auditioning Film and Television Scripts from NCIS, Divorce (HBO), Stranger Things, Ray Donovan (Showtime), Your Honor (Showtime), Ozark, Disney, Pixar and Nickelodeon.
- Commercial Training, Slates, Personality Slates, Interview Questions, and Commercial Copy on Camera using Self-Taping Techniques
- Breakdown of Self-Taping Requirements
- Improvisation and Theatre Games
- Live or Recorded Showcase featuring Commercials, Film and Television Scenes

Melinda Darlington-Bach is an Emmy Award winning filmmaker and acting teacher and a 25-year working veteran SAG/AFTRA actress. Starting in the business as both a runway and fashion model at the age of 16, Melinda made the seamless transition into the world of show business. In both the Los Angeles and Bay Area markets, she has worked in over 65 national commercials, industrials and feature films. Using her superb skills and experience, Melinda has been working for San Francisco Acting Academy teaching and coaching on camera tweens/teens both theatrical and commercial classes for the last 10 years. Melinda works closely with young talent preparing them with self-tapes, important auditions for Disney, Nickelodeon, Little Rascals, Penny Dreadful, Universal Studios and major feature films including Blue Jasmine directed by Woody Allen. For the past 20 years, Ms. Darlington-Bach has worked as a model/ talent scout personally setting up hundreds of auditions for the Bay Area and Los Angeles franchised talent agencies.
