

BAYPAC THEATER COMPANY

Do you burst into song when you hear a familiar lyric or tune? Are you practicing lines and choreography in your head while falling asleep at night? Be a part of the community of peers that have the same passion for theater arts - a company bonded together through shared interests and experiences. Designed for advanced students committed to training and pursuing theater on a pre-professional level, BAYPAC Theater Company members train in weekly classes, perform in PAAM productions and local venues, and attend exclusive workshops with industry professionals. Create your home away from home with caring faculty and a friendly, supportive student body.

For Ages 10 - 12 & Ages 13+

- Two Training Classes Weekly
- Four Workshops with Industry Professionals
- Five + Performance Opportunities
